Wine Business Magazine [May 2014]

“Delightfully lively and fragrant for Margaret River Chardonnay with malic acidity accenting citrus fruit drive, carrying long and refreshing through the finish. Citrus-accented freshness makes for great culinary versatility”.

“A good go-to option for Margaret River chardonnay. It has all bases covered. Freshness, flavour, balance and enough length to satisfy. It tastes of pears, fennel, citrus, spicy oak and hay. It finishes juicy. It’s not especially intense but it’s pure and likeable. No hesitation in recommending it”.

“Spicy grapefruit defines this modern chardonnay, while zesty lemon citrus entwined with crunchy green apple and pear might change your mind on the grape. At this price point, it’s hard not to go past a second bottle”

“Flametree is one of the newer names on the block but winemaker Cliff Royle has immense experience and this is a terrific value ‘drink now’ chardonnay with stone fruit and gentle citrus notes to the fore and oak playing a support role”.
