95 Points—#1 of 30 Margaret River Chardonnays

Huon Hooke - The Real Review, Sydney Morning Herald, The Age—August 2017

“Restraint with drive and persistence’ could be winemaker Cliff Royle’s mantra. The bouquet is complex and charming with lightly toasted almond and subtle citrus fruit aromas. The palate is intense but delicate and finely composed, with tension, refinement and length. I could drink a bucket of it.”
