MARGARET RIVER

EMBERS SAUVIGNON BLANC

"Winemaker Cliff Royle has sourced fruit from three sub-regions to create this well-structured and aromatic savvy. It's largely tank fermented but the addition of some lees-held fruit brings more texture into the equation. It's quite rich and creamy but with a lively crisp acidity to bring it to life and sustain the finish. Ideal drinking over the next couple of years." Ray Jordan, 2016

EMBERS CABERNET SAUVIGNON

"You can't go wrong. Flavour, mouthfeel, shape and length are all covered admirably. Currants and bay leaves, wood spice and a touch of pepper. It not at all heavy but it slides and slings and, ultimately, satisfies." Campbell Mattinson, 2016

"An exercise in precision and discipline, almost glittering in its mouthfeel and structure; snow pea, capsicum, lemon, guava and green pineapple are held in an embrace of crunchy acidity".

MARGARET RIVER

FLAMETREE CHARDONNAY

"Chardonnays from this producer have moved into a new zone of consistency and quality. Fits snugly into the modern era of Margaret River and Aussie chardonnay but retains the power and drive that make this area so good. Nutty, melony aroma with a little grapefruit. The Palate is already showing a degree of complexity but the fruit is pristine. Lovely over the next few years." James Halliday, 2016

FLAMETREE MARGARET RIVER SHIRAZ

“At the heartier end of the regional shiraz style and at the upper end of the quality scale too. This doesn't pull any punches. It's beefy with blackberry, licorice, dust and chicory notes and strings flavour-loaded tannin out through the finish. A bright but sturdy wine.” Campbell Mattinson, 2016

SRS KARRIDALE SAUVIGNON BLANC

"These guys have a mighty good range of interesting wines and this is one of the best. An excellent interpretation of sauvignon blanc using French oak fermentation to bring complexity and palate richness into the mix. SRS WALCLIFFE CHARDONNAY

“Gingin clone, hand-picked and whole bunch-pressed for wild yeast barrel ferment (100% new French oak); matured for 12 months. Margaret River chardonnay at its elegant best, with white peach, cashew and grapefruit standing clear and proud, the barrel ferment inputs there, but relatively subtle. Drop dead gold medal quality.” James Halliday, 2015

JEREMY JOHN CABERNET MALBEC

“Exceptionally deep crimson-purple; a barrel selection of the best parcels from the 2011 vintage, itself a memorable year; intense blackcurrant fruit is layered with plum ex the malbec, and supported by plentiful, but ripe, tannins, French oak adding yet another dimension. This wine will still be kicking goals 40 years on from its vintage; give it a chance for at least 10 years.”
