FLAMETREE WINES MARGARET RIVER PINOT ROSE 2015

Regan Drew Wine Words December 2015

"Pinot Noir isn't one of Margaret River's flagship grapes, but here it produces a vibrant and fun wine. Rose gold coloured. Smells of gun smoke. Cranberries, ruby grapefruit and those little strawberry soaps. Finishing relatively dry, it is slightly fruitier than the TarraWarra but not a sweet wine at all."
