FLAMETREE WINES MARGARET RIVER SAUVIGNON BLANC SEMILLON 2015

James Halliday Wine Companion Website Feb 2016

93 Points

“Herbs and grasses underpinned by buoyant tropical fruit. Gravelly. An unmistakable example of the Margaret River SSB blend, and a good one”.

CH'NG Poh Tiong

The Margaret River Report 2015

“Whiff of reduction. Energy and purity of fruit including Granny Smith apples and grapefruit. Reminds me of a Sancerre.”

“This is a really punchy blend from Margaret River. Loads of intense herbaceous character on the nose and the palate with a delicious balance of tropical fruitiness. Crisp fine acid and a very long finish. Has a slightly creamy texture emanating from a touch of barrel work. Good for the next year or so. At this time of year the crays and crabs would be tasting grouse with some of this.”
