“This is something of a ‘do yourself a favour’ wine. It’s the kind of wine that won’t leave anyone disappointed, for starters, but it’s also impressive. It’s hearty, stylish, deep-fruited and yet bright. Red licorice, blackberry, cloves and smoky oak notes, with a gently mineral edge to the tannin finish. It’s not loose, it’s firm. The flesh of the fruit keeps it accessible”.

“Classic Margaret River shiraz of stature and structure, this is a wine that presents fruit density and character within a medium-bodied guise, framed in the finely textured, gravelly tannins that set this region apart. Blueberry, blackberry and dark plum is backed by suggestions of licorice and dark chocolate, finishing compact and structured. Drink 2021-2028”.
